

The Robert Hamblin Award

This Award was instituted in memory of former Chairman, Robert Hamblin, as a means of recognising work done by members of the Society that is of particular merit and 'beyond the call of duty'. Consequently, it is not open to members of the Executive nor to the vice-presidents and the president. In their own way, each recipient is, or has been, a tireless worker for the Society or for furthering its aims.

2003 Bryan Longfellow

For his work on the Logge Wills, the first recipient. He transcribed the most wills of any of the contributors.

2004 Pat Ruffle

For work in many aspects of the Society, not least the Fotheringhay kneeler project.

2005 Anne Smith

Former member of the Committee, Sales Officer and Fiction Librarian.

2006 Noreen Armstrong

An active worker and author for the Canadian Branch of the Society.

2007 Rita Diefenhardt-Schmitt

Founder and Secretary of the Continental Group.

2008 Moira Habberjam

Long time Secretary of the Yorkshire branch and an editor of the Logge Wills.

2009 Julia Redlich

Secretary of the New South Wales Branch in Australia, active worker in the cause of Richard III.

2010 Margaret York

Ricardian novelist and active worker for the reputation of Richard III. After Isolde Wigram, the longest serving member of the Society.

2011 Annmarie Hayek

Secretary of the Norfolk Branch and organiser of the annual Norwich Study Day.
